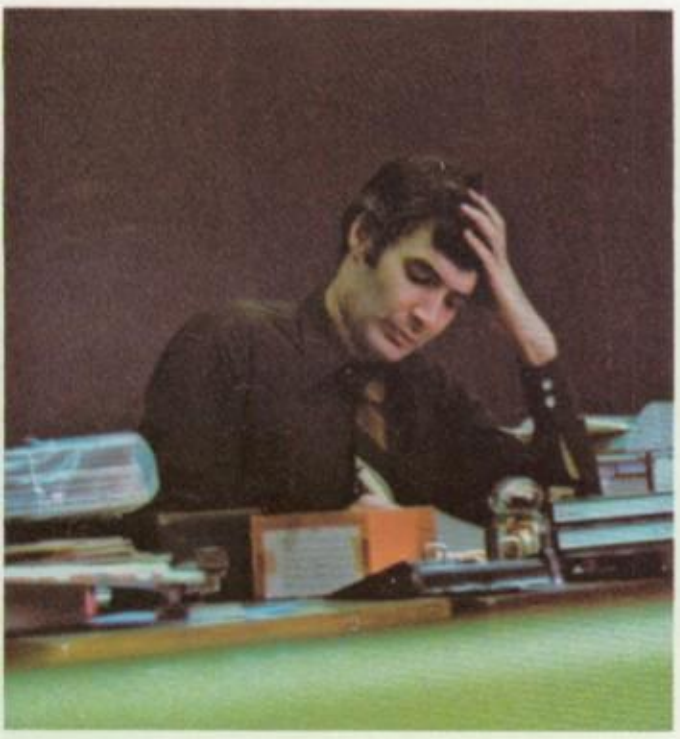
TO SIR, WITH LOVE



Robert Browning wrote a poem,
But I forgot to take it home;
I read the poem at the end of class,
But alas, I read too fast!
My memory is not its best,
Because of this I fail this test!
Please forgive what I have done,
And mark this paper with a ONE!

The same above for this is true,
These questions make me very blue!
Mark me not for answers true,
But mark my poem for amusing you!

"Ode to a would-be student"
Alas my dear student,
You were not at all prudent.
You certainly did not prove a scholar,
Thus you have no reason to holler.
When for the poem I give you a ONE,
Just because you did it all in fun.
But for the book you are in a fix,
For this mentor deems you worth a six!!

"You Know,
Mr. Allen,
We Really Did
Learn Something
This Year."

Hey kid, where did you learn to walk?

Humor him, he can't read!

When you're down and troubled,
And you need a helping hand,
And nothing is going right,
Close your eyes and think
of me,
And soon I will be there,
To brighten up
Even your darkest night.

Winter, Spring, Summer or Fall,
All you have to do is call.
And I'll be there,
You've got a friend.

"Get in the Winner's Circle. Go Navy."

Don Garlits—Professional Drag Racer

"Being a winner isn't just limited to racing. And even though I was first to top 200 mph in drag racing, I'm very much aware that success is important—no matter what field you're in. That's why I talk to young men and women about the Navy. If you've got what it takes, you can choose one from over 70 career opportunities. Opportunities that can put you in the winner's circle in fields like computers, electronics, communications . . . with job opportunities as wide as the imagination. From one end of the skill scale to another. Of course, you'll have to work hard. But that's what getting in the winner's circle is all about. There'll be benefits, too. Good pay. And a chance to see something of the world. And make your way in it, too. Right into the winner's circle. Get started now. See your local recruiter and find out what you qualify for even before you enlist."
